

Want to Know What's Happening in Washington?

What is the Federal Government Doing to Make Your Life as an Educator Easier...or Harder? Find out by reading CEC's weekly Public Policy Update, available on CEC's Web site at: <http://www.cec.sped.org/pp/> and by going to CEC's Legislative Action Center at: <http://capwiz.com/cek/home/>

Check it out Today!!!

CEC's Public Policy Resources

CEC's Public Policy Unit has put together a variety of resource documents on our Web site for you to download at your leisure. Some of these documents include:

CEC's IDEA Reauthorization Recommendations:
http://www.cec.sped.org/gov/IDEA_reauth_4-2002.pdf

CEC's Response to the President's Commission on Excellence in Special Education Report:
http://www.cec.sped.org/spotlight/cec_response/PresCommReport.html

And a link to the report:
<http://www.ed.gov/inits/commissionsboards/whspecialeducation/>

CEC's Technical Assistance Report on the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001:
<http://www.cec.sped.org/pp/OverviewNCLB.pdf>

And an extensive side-by-side of the Act analyzing its implications for special education:
<http://www.cec.sped.org/pp/NCLBside-by-side.pdf>

Go to CEC's Home Page at www.cec.sped.org for more information about these and other fantastic resources!!!!!!

